Dear Larry:

On 15 July 1982 you passed to us, for a security classification re-review, page 1988 of Foreign Relations of the United States, Volume XII, 1955-57, China and Japan. We have completed our re-review and it was determined that no identifiable damage would likely occur by releasing the two marked paragraphs if one sentence could be deleted from the account.

We therefore assert continued classification for the statement but concur that the remainder of the two paragraphs does not represent classified information and may be released.

25X1

Sincerely,

Dear Larry:

We have completed our review of the manuscripts from Foreign Relations of the United States, Volume III, 1955-57, The American Republics, and have coordinated it with the Directorate of Operations. Our decisions are recorded on the attached list of recommended deletions, and in addition we have marked the deletions on the 42 pages where they occur in the FRUS.
